CAR STORY

BOB EASLEY ASKED TO DO PART 2 OF HIS CAR STORY NEXT MONTH AS HE HAD TO LEAVE EARLY.

WORDS FROM BOB EDWARDS OF THE STUDEBAKER CLUB REGARDING GCC PICNIC:

What can I say EXCEPT ! GREAT PICNIC and CAR SHOW. I didn't take notes but I'm guessing at least 60 members of car clubs were present Even Studebaker members, which I haven't seen in two years made it. Jeff and Melinda with their '51 Starlight (on trailer), Ken and Carol Lawson with Pick Up, Rick Wyman and his friends '53 Chevy (Rick's 62 GT Hawk wouldn't start, Joel and Karel Daniel, cooking Hamburgers and Hot Dogs (Great Job Joel) and more I'll add later.

Many "THANKS" to the AACA CLUB for the invitation. Couldn't have been better. Many of the wife's brought dishes. Most disappeared by 1PM and the desserts were attacked. Too much, just too much. No one left hungry .

I'll share more pictures of the beautiful cars in another email as their in another camera.

KEN LAWSON'S RESPONSE:

Thanks for the kind words. Everything was just right-Beautiful weather, GREAT venue, Cool cars, Terrific people, Delicious food and Wonderful FELLOWSHIP which it's all about !!
A special "SHOUT-OUT" to GCS resident and member Rick Wyman who handled on-site parking coordination, without which our cars wouldn't have been able to park together at the venue !!
Also special "THANKS" to Joel Daniel for all the cooking and the gals for handling food services, especially Carol and Karel.
GREAT EVENT !! Thanks to everyone for attending from AACA, Model As and Studebaker Clubs !
Ken
